ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: Tara is believed to be a Mk.1 Corribee supported by the fact that she has a separate rudder with no skeg. She has also had a modification to her coachroof. She has been in storage within our boatyard since being last hauled out of the water in Sept 2007. The boat has mainly been stored under cover. New lifelines made up by ourselves in 2004. Other than these items we have not done any other work on her during her time within our yard when she first was hauled up by ourselves in Oct 2003.

CURRENT LOCATION: Wm. Partington Marine – Hard Standing.
